1. On 20 August 1950 Belgrade ordered Yugoslav military units   to move from Stip and Skoplje to Nis. One Yugoslav battalion remains in Strumica. There has been no mobilization in the Strumica area. Ten percent of the Yugoslav reserves have been called up to active duty. No threat to the Strumica area from the Bulgarians is expected by the Yugoslavs. It is reported that the Bulgarians have not been sending their agents into the Strumica area. There have been no border incidents during September and early October.
2. Civilians are receiving training in chemical and gas warfare. The largest school is located in Bosiljevo, and a total of 80 students are in training.
